Gadna Youth Drowns In Irrigation Pool

A Gadna youth, Yoni Markovitz, 18, of Jerusalem, drowned on Saturday evening in an irrigation pool. The youth, who was a member of the Gadna youth group, was swimming in the pool when he fell in. He was found by a group of friends and taken to the hospital, where he died.

A committee, headed by Mrs. Hanna Even-Tov, of the Prime Minister's Office, and representatives of the Ministry of Defense, Education and Culture, will investigate the accident.

The youth was buried yesterday afternoon at Mount Herzl Military Cemetery in Jerusalem.

WOMAN SHOT IN MA'BARA

BEERSHEVA, Monday. — Mrs. Meira Arkin, 48, was shot dead last night while standing at the window of her home in Ma'bara. She was shot by a Palestinian Arab who was hiding in the area.

The shots were fired by a local watchman, Mr. Shmuel Regehal, resident of the Ma'bara. He was shot while standing at the window of his home.

He shot at them, he said, without seeing the woman who stood in a darkened window. Regehal was detained.

KILLED BY LORRY

BEERSHEVA, Monday. — David Merdchal, of Moshav Mivtachim, was knocked down and killed today by a J.N.F. lorry on the road near Kibbutz Zella in the northern Negev.

Another man was injured at the same time, but details of the incident were not available.

Merdchal and the injured man were among a group engaged on a construction work.

Dog Upsets Stove, Starts Fire

PETAH TIKVA, Monday. — A heron's stove which was overturned by a dog started a fire in a wooden hut in the Petah Tikva Ma'bara at noon today.

The fire was caused by a dog which was running around the stove. The fire was quickly extinguished.

The dog was owned by Mrs. Chaima Mizrahi. Part of her property was saved by the prompt action of the Petah Tikva fire brigade.

Men Sentenced For Beating Bus Driver

PETAH TIKVA, Monday (J.M.). — The disorderly behavior of the public in buses has to be stopped, Magistrate Y. Treivish said here today.

He said that he had sentenced two men to 10 days imprisonment each for beating a bus driver last August for not stopping at an unauthorized station.

They had also assaulted a policeman who intervened.

GLUBB ON LEAVE

Glubb Pasha, commander of the Arab Legion, left Jordan on Sunday for England on a two-month leave. "A-Difa," the Old City daily, reports.

For presenting 20 hours of television in Israel at the present time could not be justified on economic grounds, Brigadier-General David Sarnoff, Chairman of the Radio Corporation of America, told a Jerusalem press conference yesterday.

"It would be an important factor in helping solve the problem of integration of the various immigrant groups," he said, "and by having a direct and immediate contact with the people of the country who have added military strength."

But he indicated that there were more serious problems facing Israel now than the setting up of television.

The cost of equipping four transmitting stations in Israel would amount to $1.2 million, General Sarnoff declared.

Receiving sets would add to the cost although community screens could at first be put up in auditoriums or outdoors.

Later, individual sets could be assembled in Israel. In America, these sets now cost as little as $150 due to mass production.

The Minister of Communications, Mr. D. Z. Pincus, in whose office the press conference was held, announced that two new radio transmitters totaling 20 kilowatts, which were ordered several years ago from R.C.A., would be set up in the near future.

It was hoped, he said, to build one day a broadcasting headquarters, which would be named in honor of General Sarnoff.

Mr. Pincus also presented the guest with a hand-drawn bound volume of the Bible.

In a brief speech, General Sarnoff noted that he had come with "little knowledge and no prejudices" about Israel, and urged the country "not to rely too much on outside aid."

He expressed the hope that Israel would strive to "reach a point of normal self-sufficiency, being able to produce its own maximum requirements."

Asked for his opinion on Israel's maintaining one radio station run by the Government, he remarked that it was "like asking a married man, in the presence of his wife, whether he advocated bachelorhood."

General Sarnoff stressed that in the U.S. he supported private enterprise, but that in Israel, with its limited population and area, a single, Government-administered station was the best solution.

Furthermore, radio advertising was not important here, because a seller's market existed.

General and Mrs. Sarnoff visited the Western Front at Tel Aviv, the Jerusalem Courier reports. They planned to visit the area established by the Jewish National Fund in the Gush Dan area.

Reshet, Hulata Go Fishing

YERUSALEM, Monday. — Fishermen of the Reshet Cooperative of Yotvata Hama'ala and Kibbutz Hulata will fish in Lake Hula tonight for the first time in more than two weeks. The Reshet Representative's "no fishing order" imposed on both groups after Kibbutz members sank a fishing boat belonging to the cooperative, was repealed last week.

According to an agreement signed by the two parties, Reshet is to receive 20 tons of fish a year from the catch in the Lake and Hulata 120 tons.

$250,000 in Gift Food Certificates Frozen

Jerusalem POST Bureau TEL AVIV, Monday. — Blank Scrip certificates to the value of $250,000 and about $4,000 found in hotels and shops were "frozen" by the Economic Police in June, after it was learned that the certificates were being sold to local residents.

The police action followed the discovery that hotels were selling scrip freely and without Government supervision, and that at least one firm had been printing the certificates at a printing press in Tel Aviv.

At a meeting today of representatives of the Ministry of Finance, the Ministry of Commerce and Industry, and high-ranking police officers, the action of hotels in selling certificates to tourists was said to be illegal as they had oral permission from the government to do so.

The present manner of selling the scrip, however, was found to be inefficient, and it was stated that new regulations will be published shortly.

Extradition Pact Lapses, Man Free

TEL AVIV, Monday (J.M.). — The extradition agreement between Israel and France lapses today, and a resident of Tel Aviv, held in IL-2000 had been on a French extradition application, was therefore released by Chief Magistrate A. Malchi here today.

Three weeks ago Martin Waskowitz, 30, was brought before the Magistrate following a request from French police that he was wanted in connection with fraud and smuggling charges.

The French authorities stated that full information was lacking before they would forward him to Israel immediately.

The man was released in bail, but his passport was taken by the police.

Capital Gardeners To Stage Strike

Thirty Jerusalem municipal gardeners are due to go out on strike at 11 o'clock this morning, unless the city administration agrees to discuss the recent dismissal of five men in their department.

Claiming that the authorities should have consulted the workers' council before dismissing the men, the gardeners stated that the walkout will "spread to other city offices" unless their demand is met.

The strike has the support of marked extent.

Called to Bar At 72

Jerusalem POST Reporter A 72-year-old advocate from South Africa was among the 43 candidates presented to the Supreme Court President Dr. Meir Shamir, for admission to the Bar yesterday.

State Attorney, Mr. E. S. Shmiron, presented the new attorneys who include many who qualified abroad as well as local graduates.

Mr. Emanuel Gluckmann arrived three years ago and qualified as an attorney in Israel after more than 40 years of practice in South Africa.

Justice Shamir pointed out that this was an encouraging sign of the growing importance and high standards of the Israel Bar.

Owing to Mr. Gluckmann's illness, his certificate was presented to his son, Mr. Colin Gluckmann, the Deputy State Attorney.

Among the candidates at Call Day were Mr. and Mrs. I. Ben Achi who received their certificates together.

Mr. I. Nejer, legal clerk to the Supreme Court, was also admitted.

The President enjoined the new attorneys to safeguard the interests of their clients and at the same time to assist the Courts in upholding the ideals of justice.

Higher Retail Profits Refused by Gov't

Jerusalem POST Reporter A general rise in retail profits will not be approved by the Ministry of Commerce and Industry despite reduced turnover.

This information was contained in a letter sent by Dr. Y. Yaffe, Ministry Price Controller, to the Retail Merchants Association, it was learned in Jerusalem yesterday.

Individual adjustments in the profit margin for special cases, however, are to be made from time to time. The profits for sweets are to be increased from 25 to 30 per cent.

A Ministry survey of retail trade shows that profits did not increase in proportion to higher prices under the New Economic Policy. This proved that the NEP has already brought about a curtailment in consumption, the letter says.

Dr. Yaffe pointed out, however, that effects of such economic processes cannot be altered by increasing profits at the consumers' expense.

A letter has containing details of the gifts had been released during the year, he said. The medicines had been offered to Hadassah and Kupat Holim hospitals, but no one came to examine the goods or remove them, the witness stated.

Mr. Yitzhak Levy, in charge of the main store which contained immigrants' belongings, told the Court that he did not know the contents of the 488 pieces of luggage of newcomers from Persia.

Haifa to Maintain Saturday Transport

Jerusalem POST Bureau HAIFA, Monday. — The Haifa public was entitled to keep its truck transport service, through which it had been not against the Jewish Cooperative, the Mayor, Mr. A. Khar-ay, told the Town Council tonight.

He was replying to a question from Mr. Y. Khar-ay (Mapam).

The question of development in Haifa was greater than in other towns because 40,000 persons live in the neighboring suburb, and more workers were being built, the Mayor said, replying to Mrs. Hilla Eran, (Communist).

The Histadrut had already succeeded in shifting unemployed urban workers to agriculture. The Municipality had plans ready to employ thousands of men at 45 hours a week, if only funds were available.

About 150 men would start work on broadening the Haifa-Acre road tomorrow, if the tender for this $1,000,000 project were accepted.

Mapai, Mapam and Communist councillors voted to award the contract to Sola Ben-Zion. All the others voted against.

Except Deputy Mayor Y. Khar-ay (Ahdut Yisrael Workers) who abstained.

Gifts Kept in Port Shed A Year

Jerusalem POST Bureau TEL AVIV, Monday. — Toys for orphans and medicines for hospitals, which were destroyed in the Jaffa port fire, were kept in the Jewish Agency warehouse for over a year.

Mr. A. Tomashov, the storekeeper, testified at the fire inquiry here today.

Only very small quantities of the gifts had been released during the year, he said. The medicines had been offered to Hadassah and Kupat Holim hospitals, but no one came to examine the goods or remove them, the witness stated.

Mr. Yitzhak Levy, in charge of the main store which contained immigrants' belongings, told the Court that he did not know the contents of the 488 pieces of luggage of newcomers from Persia.

Hellen Keller Greets Knesset Speaker

The Knesset Speaker, Mr. Yosef Sprinck, last week received an autographed portrait from the deaf and blind writer, Miss Helen Keller.

Engraved across the photograph in square, straight letters was the following inscription: "To Mr. Joseph Sprinck, whose beautiful welcome to the Knesset made me glow with the mounting spirit of a busy young Israel."

'Saucers' Fill Sky

WASHINGTON, Monday. — Mysterious objects streaked through the skies on Saturday night and again last night at speeds above 500 miles per hour, the Air Force reported yesterday. This was the second such "visit" in a week in this area.

Jet planes with a 550 m.p.h. maximum speed chased but could not catch up with the objects, which were described by a number of pilots as "white lights."

"We have no concrete evidence that they are 'flying saucers,'" an Air Force spokesman said. As many as 12 unidentified objects appeared on the radar scope, the air traffic control centre reported.

The radar equipment was checked and found in perfect order.

The nature of the electronic signals received by the radar scope ruled out the possibility of any meteorological disturbance, the Civil Aeronautics Authorities said.

The movement of the objects was reported as horizontal although some pilots reported vertical movement as well. Conflicting reports were turned in on the objects, although the most of the reports listed the objects as level as the height of the flight.

Russian Fur Auction Opens in Leningrad

MOSCOW, Monday (Reuters). — Buyers from several countries have arrived in Leningrad for the annual Russian fur auction opening there today, according to an American who arrived from Leningrad.

About 70 buyers in all are now in Leningrad, he said, with the British forming the largest group. Five or six American buyers came from New York.

Sweden and both East and West Germany are also well represented at the sale.

Volga-Don Canal Officially Opened

LONDON, Monday (Reuters). — The 35-mile long canal linking the Don River and the Volga River was officially opened at Stalingrad yesterday, Moscow Radio reported.

Thousands of people attended the ceremony and a new motorship, Joseph St., flagship of the Volga-Don Canal Navigation Line, began navigation on the canal.

The canal, which was completed on May 31, creates a new inland system to transport bulk cargo cheaply and speedily in the eastern part of European Russia, where railways are underdeveloped.

It will also increase the area of productive land by bringing water to the semi-arid Steppes between the two rivers as far south as the approaches to the Caucasus.

U.S. Jewry Has Sincere Interest in Israel-Sharet

American Jewry is sincerely interested in the vital needs of our State, the Foreign Minister, Mr. Sharet, said yesterday at the weekly meeting of the Jewish Agency Executive in Jerusalem.

Reporting on his recent trip to the U.S., he surveyed the tasks of the American Jewish movement in fund-raising and public relations activities, Hebrew education, youth emigration, the recruiting of specialists and private capital investments.

Mr. Sharet was greeted by the Executive Co-Chairman, Mr. Locker, who praised the Foreign Minister's recent efforts on behalf of the United Jewish Appeal and the Bond Drive.

Mr. Locker reported on the details of Agency discussions in New York and on the discussions of the Zionist General Council Pressidium on the venue of November's meeting.

General Drops Dead At Eva Peron's Bier

BUENOS AIRES, Monday (Reuters). — General Juan Vaca, President of the Military Club, dropped dead by the bier of Eva Peron today. He died of heart failure when expressing his own grief.

Three women and a policeman died and many women and children were trampled underfoot as a huge crowd estimated at 500,000 milled outside the Labour Ministry to view the embalmed remains of the President's wife.

Police officials appealed to the people for calm over loudspeakers erected in the packed streets and asked them to make way for the "many injured." Large signs were hurriedly put up asking the mourners to collaborate with the authorities.

Doctors said they have been assisting as many injured persons since Sunday afternoon that they could not estimate the total number of casualties. A continuous flow of ambulances is leaving the area of the Ministry.

No date has yet been set for the funeral.

Apart from essential public services all normal activity in the country was paralyzed. The President of the Chamber of Deputies, Sr. Hector Campora, introduced a bill yesterday proposing that July 26 shall henceforward be observed each year as a day of mourning for "Evita."
